The name Zanzibar evokes images of palm-fringed coastlines framing white sandy beaches and the warm, crystal-clear water of the Indian Ocean. It's no surprise, then, that the sultans of yesteryear chose this location as their key trading post.

Meal Plan: Dinner

Days 2 & 3 – Zanzibar

Spend the next two days relaxing on the beach with a book in hand.

For those who are more active, there are a variety of optional activities available at an additional cost, including a tour of Stone Town, a visit to a local spice farm, or exploring the seas on a snorkeling or diving trip (additional cost).

Head out on a tour of Stone Town, the historical, cultural, and architectural capital of Zanzibar Island. A designated UNESCO World Heritage Site, the town is famous for its distinctive architecture, most notably its narrow streets that snake between the various houses, buildings, and monuments. A tour of Stone offers a fascinating look at the essence of Zanzibar, including the colonial monuments, ornately carved and studded doors, two cathedrals, and countless mosques.

Zanzibar is known as the Spice Island. Visit a local spice farm on the island, where you will be taken around by the farmer and shown how each of the various spices grows and what the plants look like. At the end of the tour, you will have the opportunity to buy some of the spices.

Zanzibar has great diving spots for those water sport enthusiasts looking to experience Zanzibar from below.
